

Chancellor Hotel on Union Square

The Chancellor Hotel on Union Square is a charming 137 room hotel located in the heart of San Francisco. Since 1914, the Chancellor has seen many improvements but one thing hasn't changed; it is still a classic boutique hotel serving guests who want to be surrounded by world class shopping, restaurants, and theatre at a good value.

When you aren't shopping or dining, just step out of our lobby and ride the Powell Street Cable Car past Chinatown, over Nob Hill, and by Lombard Street to Fisherman's Wharf. At Fisherman's Wharf, boats depart for Alcatraz Island, Sausalito, and Tiburon for some great sight-seeing. The business traveler will also find great value in our hotel because of its short walk to the Moscone Convention Center, free local calls, two line phones with data ports and the Chancellor Hotel's Clipper Ship Meeting Room.

Every room, including the two-room suites, is decorated in a classic European motif, and contains the amenities that our guests have come to expect. Additionally, the entire hotel is completely non-smoking for your comfort.

Luques Restaurant & Bar, located just off the lobby of the hotel, offers breakfast and lunch, and room service. The menu features California Cuisine. The Bar is warm and approachable, featuring specialty cocktails, local draught and bottled beer and a pleasing and diverse wine list emphasizing the best that California has to offer.

Conde' Nast Traveler magazine recently rated San Francisco as the #1 city in the United States for cuisine and our front desk would be happy to make restaurant recommendations and/or reservations for you before you arrive; just email concierge@chancellorhotel.com
